The nighttime doesn't really get started until Midnight. That's when vocal diva Diane Schuur comes out to play, stepping up to the vocal mic to sing the perfect jazz noir soundtrack to your late evening. Partnering with legendary songwriters/producers Barry Manilow and Eddie Arkin—who crafted these new jazz nocturnes specifically to showcase Diane's unparalleled vocal artistry—Diane Schuur swaggers with a smoldering, slow-burning intensity on swinging numbers, while igniting the midnight torch on lush ballads and bossa novas with a passionate, yet gentle, touch. Karrin Allyson, Brian McKnight and Manilow himself also join Diane for some intimate vocal duets, making Diane Schuur's Midnight the only place to be when the clock strikes twelve.

Special Thanks From the Producers: Hal Gaba, John Burk, Glen Barros, Garry Kief, Marc Hulett, Patricia Arkin, Don Murray, Bill Elliott, Jorge Calandrelli, Dianne Kutzner at the Desert Center Braille Institute and all the musicians.

Diane Schuur Thanks: First of all I'd like to give my heartfelt thanks to Barry Manilow, "Bear," for your sensitivity towards me, not only as a human being but also as an artist. You're a genius! A special thanks to the musicianship of Eddie Arkin, who is a lot of fun in person and also gives great phone! And to Marty Panzer for his beautiful lyrics. To my duet partners, Karrin, Brian and of course Barry, thanks for sharing your time and talent with me. Thank you, Marc Hulett "Marco," for your tremendous support throughout this project. Paul Cantor, "Paully Wally," your intuitive sense in guiding my career throughout the years has helped to give me an important place in the music world. Donald David, you and Buzzy, my Gemini slster, are the greatest at keeping the machinery running smoothly! To my dearest friend, Geoffrey English, "Geofer Geofer," thanks for being there through everything throughout the years! Mark Schiffelbein my web master, thank you for keeping me current with the fans around the world! I am especially grateful to the man who opened the door to the world of computers, Dave Curlender "Davey," and to the man who keeps my audio and video equipment in such great shape, Bruce Lamone, "Brucee." Thanks to Doctor Janet Martin, "Blondee," for her pearls of wisdom. I'd like to thank my very special friend, Gary Allen, "Lightning," for his gentle spirit and reassurance through it all! Bobbie Ballesteros, thanks "girlfriend" for keeping things cool and calm while on the road, and also for doing such a great job on my hair and makeup. Many thanks to Dick Alen and the agents at the William Morris Agency, and to Hal Gaba, Glen Barros, John Burk, Abbey Anna and all my friends at Concord Records. A special thank you also to Lee Solters and his associates for their PR efforts, and last, but certainly not least, thanks to my cuddly companion, Bubie the cat, who helped to relax me after intense sessions in the recording studio.

I'd like to dedicate this CD to my loving husband, Les Crockett, "Rocketman," who loves me unconditionally!

I'd like to give a very special thanks to my dear friend, Overton Berry, whose message to me is, "Peace and stillness within."

Thanks for taking the time to read this note of heartfelt gratitude! — Deedles
